MRS. THOMAS SICKING

MISS ALICE WESTENDORF, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Westendorf of Wyoming, was married to Mr. Thomas Sicking, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sicking of St. Bernard, in a double-ring ceremony solemnized at 9:30 o'clock the morning of May 31 in St. James Church with the Rev. Carl Luehrs officiating.

Miss Florence Westendorf was her sister's maid of honor. She wore an orchid gown of lace and nylon tulle with a strapless bodice, and full skirt worn over hoops. Wearing similar gowns of aqua were the bridesmaids, the Misses Joan Sicking and Maryellen George. All carried bouquets of orchids and chrysanthemums. The flowergirl, Patty Huff, wore a gown of maize nylon net over taffeta.

The bridegroom had his brother, Mr. James Sicking, as his best man. Messrs. Ralph Westendorf and Jack Sicking were ushers.

The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over net and taffeta with a molded bodice with a tulle edged neckline, short sleeves, and triple tiered skirt which swept into a scalloped-edged chapel-length train. A tulle half hat trimmed with daisy appliques centered with seed pearls held her tulle fingertip veil. The bride carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

A breakfast and reception were held at St. James Auditorium. A dinner was served at Finneytown Inn.
