

Stork Is Busy

FRONTON, Jan. 12—Three babies were born at the Marting hospital here.

A fine boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Adams of Sixth and Vine streets Sunday.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Klein of South Sixth street, and, as a result, sodas were flowing free and fast at the Klein Soda Shop.

A ten and one-half pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Delaney during the early part of Sunday night. John Delaney, the happy father, and Joe Klein, the other happy dad, are neighbors. Joe is part owner of the Soda Shop and John is a partner in the DeWitt Drug Co., just across the alley.
