

Sports Cafe Raided; Sicking To Be Cited

Five State Liquor Board agents late yesterday raided a St. Bernard cafe operated by Eddie Sicking, former Cincinnati Reds infielder, Chief Agent Raymond McDonough reported.

McDonough said Sicking would be cited for permitting gambling at the Sports Center Cafe, 4719 Vine St. McDonough said that John McCarthy, 4400 Church St., St. Bernard, was operating a hand-book there.

Agents who had been observing the cafe for some time, confiscated marked racing forms, stubs and control sheets, they said. The betting reportedly went on in a rear room where there was a results board and a public address system.
